

MSDH Notice of Nondiscrimination

The Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH) is committed to serving all people equally. MSDH does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin (including limited English proficiency), disability, age, or sex in administration of its programs, services, and activities. MSDH supports your legally protected rights against discrimination and takes no action to interfere with them, or to retaliate against anyone because of exercising these rights.

If you believe that MSDH has failed to provide services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex or has retaliated against you for engaging in a protected Civil Rights activity in its programs or activities, you can file a complaint by contacting our Civil Rights / ADA Coordinator. You may also send any questions about our nondiscrimination policy to:
